Petram Resort & Residences

Private Villa Investment Brief — Savudrija, Istria, Croatia

Europe's most compelling luxury real-estate investment opportunity. Prepared for qualified investors.

CONFIDENTIAL · Prepared for qualified investors

Why Istria. Why Now. Why Petram.

The moment. Istrian property values rose 42% between 2019 and 2024. Croatia joined the EU in 2023 and adopted the Euro; international capital that previously sat on the sidelines is now flowing in. This is the pre-peak window.

The asset. Petram Resort & Residences — 252 properties (55 villas, 179 apartments, 18 flats) built to five-star resort standards in Savudrija, Croatia's northernmost Istrian point. 1.5h to Venice, ~1h to Trieste and Pula International Airport.

The return. A total-return investment. The engine is capital growth — +42% over the last five years. On top of it, the fully managed rental programme runs at 100% occupancy in season (78% across the full year) and delivers a 3–4% net rental yield after the 20% villa management fee — with zero owner involvement.

The acquisition edge. New-build villas at Petram carry no property transfer tax — the 3% tax applies only to used properties. New builds fall under the VAT regime, applicable when purchasing via a VAT-registered company.

The protection. EU member state · Euro · Schengen · established property law · LeadingRE-backed agency. Capital-gains treatment on a later resale is assessed case-by-case — consult your tax advisor.

THE MARKET

The Adriatic's Rising Riviera

EU accession advantage

Croatia joined the EU in January 2023 and adopted the Euro. Property rights are now fully EU-standardised and capital controls removed — unlocking demand that previously sat on the sidelines.

Supply constraint

Istria is a protected peninsula. Strict building regulations mean new resort-level supply is extremely limited. Petram is one of the last permitted large-format luxury developments.

Demand drivers

Polish and German HNW buyers, the Croatian diaspora in the USA, and Middle-Eastern capital diversifying out of UAE-only portfolios.

Villa types

Type I — Garden

Type II — Sea View

Type III — Rooftop Pool

Villa	Size	Layout	Feature	Price
Type I — Garden	282 m²	2 bed / 1 bath	Garden, terrace, parking	€1,746,375
Type II — Sea View	376 m²	3 bed / 4 bath	Wine cellar, double garage	€2,007,250
Type III — Rooftop Pool	489 m²	4 bed / 5 bath	Private rooftop infinity pool	€2,929,700

Total Return: Capital Growth First. Net Rental Income On Top.

Illustrative total-return model — Villa Type II (€2,007,250)

Component	Conservative	Base Case
Net rental yield (after 20% villa management fee)	3%	4%
Net annual rental income	€60,218	€80,290
Net rental income over 5 years	€301,088	€401,450
5-yr capital growth (if 42% trend holds)	+€843,045	+€843,045
Total 5-year return	€1,144,133	€1,244,495

> Why the model holds: the resort runs at 100% occupancy in season and 78% across the full year — and the engine of the return is capital growth, not rent. The yield is stated net, after the 20% villa management fee.

Numbers illustrative. Consult Ivan Varat for verified projections. Past performance does not guarantee future results.

The managed rental programme

- Villa listed on the resort platform + OTAs
- Petram handles bookings, guest registration, cleaning, maintenance
- Transparent 20% management fee on villas
- Owner receives quarterly income reports + flexible personal-use calendar + a dedicated property manager
- Owner does: nothing (optional)

Tax position

- No property transfer tax on new-build villas — the 3% tax applies only to used properties; new builds fall under the VAT regime (applicable when purchasing via a VAT-registered company)
- Capital-gains treatment on resale after 2 years is assessed case-by-case — consult your tax advisor
- Rental income taxed at Croatian rates (confirm current rate with a legal advisor)
- EU legal framework — full ownership & inheritance rights

LOCATION

Central Europe's Best-Kept Secret

Why accessibility matters for yield: owners can easily visit (flexible personal use), guests fly in easily (high occupancy), and multiple European airports within reach mean genuinely international demand.

Destination	Distance / Time
Pula Airport	91 km · ~55 min
Trieste	94 km · ~1h
Ljubljana	135 km · ~1.5h
Venice	202 km · ~2h
Zagreb	275 km · ~2.5h
Munich	~1h direct flight
Warsaw	~2h direct flight
London	~2h direct flight
Dubai	~6h direct flight

The Savudrija coastline — private beach, owners only

Savudrija

Northernmost point of Istria. UNESCO-adjacent coastline, the oldest lighthouse on the Adriatic, a Michelin-starred dining region. Year-round: PGA golf, truffle festivals, wine routes, sailing.

LEGAL & PURCHASE PROCESS

Buying at Petram: Simple, Transparent, Protected

Who can buy

- EU citizens: full property rights, identical to Croatian nationals.
- Non-EU citizens: standard legal process, no restriction on freehold ownership.

Purchase process

- 1 — Reserve your villa (reservation deposit, typically 10%)
- 2 — Due-diligence period (title, permits, planning)
- 3 — Purchase agreement signed before a notary
- 4 — Remaining payment transferred
- 5 — Land-registry entry (tabula) — full ownership confirmed

Costs to budget (approximate)

Cost	% of price
Property transfer tax	0% on new villas *
Notary fees	~0.5%
Legal fees	~0.5–1%
Agent fee	confirm
Total additional	~1–2%

* The 3% transfer tax applies to used properties only. New-build villas fall under the VAT regime (applicable when purchasing via a VAT-registered company) — confirm the optimal structure with a Croatian tax advisor.

Legal protections

- EU property law applies
- Croatian land registry (tabula) — secure title
- Inheritance protected under EU succession rules
- Euro-denominated — no currency risk for EU buyers
